

Treat Her Right

Be a man that makes a woman cry tears of joy
Not a man that makes a woman cry tears of pain
Be her love, peace, and happiness
Be her sunshine when it's pouring rain
A True King lives to protect Th Queen
And make sure on her heavenly throne she remains
And True King has her humming beautiful songs
And keeps that lovely smile upon her face
Nothing sweeter than a woman's embrace
When she feels in her life she's in the greatest place
Her kiss is what transforms a boy to a king
Her waters is like honey, sweet to thy taste
Know how to keep her calm
When her emotions are all over the place
Know how to read a woman
And when she needs her space
Take her stress away
And she'll bliss you with a meal
Show her that you care
Let her tell you how she feels
Massage her body
Make her float up to heaven
Be wise, be strong
So she can learn from her lessons
Men are tall trees
Women are precious flowers
She can easily be plucked

She could easily be devoured
So let's protect our garden
Water our roses right
Make lil baby bloom
Giver her all the sunlight
There wouldn't be a sun if it wasn't for a mama
So make sure mama don't got to see no drama
Having a Queen that loves you should be an honor
So keep her exalted and don't tread upon her
Don't take a woman's love for granted
And don't take it out on her if you not man enough to handle it
Seeing a precious jewel broken Karma can't stand it
And she gone Damn you just like God Damned IT
So take care of Th Most Beautiful thing in Yah sight
Take her hand and fly to Th Highest of highs
Beauty on the outside, beauty within them eyes
She's the one that turns the tide, so make sure you treat her right.

Mama You Are

Mama you are, the reason I'm here
Mama, that title is a joy to hear
Mama, you give a man a purpose to live
Mama you feed my soul from yah loving hymns
Mama, you are the embodiment of love
Mama, you shine like the stars up above
Mama, yah loving is so sweet like honey
Mama, yah value can't be compared to money
Seeing you smile takes all our stress away

Mama don't you dare think about yesterday
Just focus on being better than your best today
Thru thick and thin mama always finds her way
Villages thrive when she's up high
And Kings rise from a kiss so divine
A 3 plus a dime she's a one of a kind
One of the rarest jewels that you will never find
She'll find you, and dust you off and say
Baby shine you, and through The Ruach of Love
She'll bind you, back to the honeycomb
When the wombs is uplifted is how we'll know that we home
And through her womb so many treasures to show
Universal secrets and divine waters that flow
Behold, the portal that leads you out of Sheol
And where heavenly seeds germinate & grow
Wisdom of The Womb, that's where I was groomed
Her love stays on my mind and soul noon to noon
An Omnipresent Beauty that shines in the dark
The Highest of Highs, Mama you are.

Beauty

Every True Queen has True Beauty
Because she is in the image of her mother
Divine, Omnipresent bringer of life
She's the reason we see beauty with these eyes
Her body curves like the waves of the ocean
Juicy on the inside like mother nature fruits
Her voice is of an Angel's she calms the storm

Every quality about her I can adore
Powerful with a portal linking Earth to Heaven
That's why I'd protect that queen with my life
Do whatever I can, provide whatever she needs
Just to make sure everything is alright
A King protects his Queen
And vice versa cause we are one
Chess shows her strength very well
Kirito and Asuna
When the Queen falls, the King falls
Then its checkmate
As long as I got my Queen
I know I'm safe and I'll always be great
So take my hand oh beautiful queen
Ride with me across the seven seas
We both got what we both need
Cause Love is beauty.

Tunes Inside My Body

Tunes inside my body
Harmonic sounds
A beating drum inside my chest
Piano keys inside my crown
Smooth sensations
Healing vibrations
Sweet love making
Deep imaginations
I am the studio

I make it happen baby
No computers I'm all live
Is you ready to take this ride
Play me all up and down
And find your favorite sound
And we can make beautiful songs
All night long
Tunes inside my body
Music on my mind
A saxophone inside my lips
A harp inside my spine
Baby just play the right tunes
And get musified
Girl shake it like a tambourine
And dance with me
Touch all your chakras like a xylophone
In synchrony
Twirl my fingers through your hair like a sitar
And tune you up like my guitar
I'm into you, you into me
We reflect so baby what is your symphony
Cause I want to hear your tunes
I want to feel your vibrations
I want to know your body
I want to feel your body
You a Queen no doubt about it
Girl you got me so excited
Got my bass kicking can't deny it

Made a tape drop it went silent
The music you make got me flying
Felt the transition, heard the sirens
Me and you was perfect timing
So baby, tell me
Can I come inside your studio?

Marry Me

Baby tell me, will you marry me?
Yahushua Ha Mashiach we married to thee
Plucked from the world yes that is we
But I need a powerful queen to carry on my seed
And you need a powerful king to hold you up on the throne
To make you feel peace, adored, and protected at home
Life did nothing but use and abuse you, yeah I know
No need to worry cause instead of flesh I'm looking at yah soul
Something the world couldn't see, a beautiful queen
And because of her warm spirit, she hums, she sings
And when the world told her no, she still believed
She still overcame, she still achieved
Because of that you deserve a beautiful reward
And I'm here to present to my majesty
Had to lean on The Most Highs so they could build me up
They gave the key to treasures inside of me
But really they for you, 13Love is true
And I'm willing to spread all this 13Love with you
Baby, will you join me in this dream
In a beautiful garden guarded by Elohyim

Queen you are exalted, queen you are supreme Queen you are the honey, you all the food I need
I feel our every heartbeat as I bow to one knee
And take hold of your precious hand, will you marry me?
