

SUNRISE

*What will you reveal today?
Soft pinks, bold reds, bright yellows
Lightly cover a tapestry of blue
I gaze into your mystery
And refresh my soul for a new day*

*As sunrise ever changes
So it is with Life
The softness of love
The boldness of courage
The brightness of hope
Lightly cover a tapestry of blue*

*Sunrise.....my friend.....my heart
I greet you once again*

THE NEWNESS OF MOON

*Hidden in the darkness of night
New moon moves through the sky
Darkness conceals all we see
Where doubt and mysteries lie*

*Hope may seem to falter
Questions just remain
Darkness fills the sky and heart
All answers seem the same*

*As nights pass into time
A crescent soon appears
A glimmer of moonlight reveals
That hope awakens here*

*Each night as darkness fades
More light will show the way
Half moon just smiled at me
Hold on for another day*

*Light will shine through darkness
A promise made by Moon
Full moon tells a story
Of peace arriving soon*

THE PUZZLE

*In darkness and mystery a new life begins
Where pieces of ancestors reside within
Their voices whisper from distant skies
The moment when light opened our eyes*

*Life may unfold with wind and thunder
The reasons why we often wonder
As moments turn from days to years
Countless pieces from living appear*

*Pieces of love and pieces of regret
Pieces of joy and mistakes to forget
Pieces of courage and pieces of fear
Pieces of laughter and pieces of tears
Pieces of wisdom and pieces of sorrow
Pieces of hope for a better tomorrow*

*1000's of pieces will weave our days
Perplexed to fit them in meaningful ways
Reflection, insight and memories recalled
Reveals how each piece makes sense of it all*

Dark Places

*As years have passed
From time to time
Memories awaken
And linger.....in my mind*

*Hidden in dark places
A crevice sinks deep
Images relive
And visit as I sleep*

*Hidden in dark places
Fire creates a spark
The embers of loss
Have stained my heart*

*Hidden in dark places
Rocks crack into peace
Quiet understanding
Brings soft release*

Stardust

*All the elements of who I am
From the beginning
To where I return
Live in the stars of unknown time*

*I am a child of the earth
Who welcomed me
On her grounds
She never sleeps
But always in motion
To bring her gift of a new day*

*From sunrise to sunset
The shadows of night softly fall
What will the darkness reveal?
What light will unfold?*

*Look up!
To the tapestry of black
With stars of woven glass
That burst into the night*

*We rise as an evening star
Burning brightly
For a moment in time
But soon dim to a fragile glow*

*Look up!
To the majesty of the Milky Way
To the origins of Orion
To the moon and planets
That reflect Earth's golden Star*

*Let the night sky lift your eyes
Deep into the heavens
Where answers are found
And truth resides*

*Let sorrows fade into the darkness
And Love rise up from the dust
To remain as vast as the universe
And as light inside our soul*

*Once again, I see tonight
All the elements of who I am
From the beginning
To where I return
Live in the stars of unknown time*
