

Take me back

Take me back to the days
Life wasn't as confusing as a maze
Take me away, for frozen I lay
Like your breathe, on a cold wintery phase

Take me back to when the skies were blue
And full of rays of sunshine
You always knew what to do
To the days nobody thought you'd be mine

Take me back to when loving wasn't a crime
And I wasn't stuck missing you
To the days when love was at it's prime
But now I'm clueless of what to do

Take me back to being young, everything was easier than can be
When you weren't all I wanted to see

Star crossed

Star crossed love of mine love me til the end of time
For once you left and went away
My soul cried for you to stay

Star crossed love of mine keep my heart for all of time
Now the hours apart grow so long
For once our love burned so strong

Star crossed love of mine I'll be yours til the end of time
Our souls smile and fly away
For now you're home and home to stay

Star crossed love of mine I am yours and you are mine
We promise our love will always stay
We promise our love will always stay

Star crossed love of mine love me til the end of time

For on this night I lay and weep
For this love I long to keep

Never believed

I never believed in love at first sight
But when I looked at you
My whole future got bright
You were like my favorite book
I could read your chapters forever
But it wasn't enough
Our words were no longer soft and poetic

You said you should've never gave me a chance
You said you should've never made that first glance

I always think of our first date
How i watched you pick apart your food on that plate
Or how your eyes would squint when you laugh
Now we're on seperate paths
You're all I wished for
But my decisions are no longer poor
And you are no longer someone i adore

I miss the way your lips curved when you said you loved me
I miss looking at you and being the happiest I could be

One day

One day you won't need love anymore
Love is supposed to be rich and pure

But in this world love is cruel and poor
True love is so obscure

To some people love is simply four letters
Until you found that one person that makes you feel absurd

As if your vision has been unblurred
"I love you"
A sentence everyone has heard
You fall in love and chase all the delights
Until you start to get adjourned

You start to lose all your energy
You think of all the bullshit they would spur

You loved harder than you should've
And now you're scared to love again
You feel so alone, so misunderstood
You want to curl up in a ball and hide in your den
They just weren't the one

You fell for them and their love stuck like glue
Don't give up, don't say you're "done"

So delete the text, don't say i miss you
Someone will be the light to your dark
You will find your sun
You will find someone that makes feel warm
Like summer months

Someone will bring you excitement
Like your birthday back when you were ten
I know they broke you
But don't be scared to love

Because where love ends
More must begin
