YOU WILL BE LOVED

You will be challenged,
Whether it's your toddler throwing a fit in the store,
Or your pre teen refusing to do their chore.

You will be motivated,
Whether your job is to go out and provide for your loved ones.
Or to stay at home and take care of your daughters and sons.

You will be exhausted,
Whether it's your newborn who has yet to grasp the concept of sleeping through the night,
Or your teenager who has yet to grasp the concept of getting their curfew right.

You will be needed,
Whether it's your infant that needs a lot of love, care,
and nourishment.
Or your adult child who is looking for words of encouragement.

But mostly you will be loved,
No matter what age, or phase of life they're in.
You will be loved.
