

Promethean

Fear not the journey of death

Do fear a life of enslavement

Crush the fear of the coffin

For it only retards progress

Stand fierce and defiant against the thousands

Your courage and might will inspire millions

Lay waste to the ways of the inferior

A path destined for slavery

To descend into a life of self-pity and failure

Leads to a life in shackles

An existence indeed earned and well deserved

For those conquered by fear

Shall forever remain scorned

Natura Non Contristatur

(Nature is Not Saddened)

Mother earth...

Covered in life giving water and soil

Asphyxiated, smothered in concrete

Butchered, purged, decimated for oil

Penetration, Infiltration, Suffocation!

Revenge from the cosmos

Solar implosion, nuclear flash

Man and his follies

Burst into ash!

Trust

Beyond the grasp of reality

Lies a truth untold

Silenced for ages

Seek it and you will fail

For it seeks you

Beyond the grasp of conformity

Remaining nameless

Unspoken, Unwritten

To avoid corruption

Born in the blood

Spawned from the chaos Serpent

Destruction, Rebirth

Questions unanswered

A truth untold

Born in the blood

Annihilation of fear

Triumphant dawn approaches...
