

Peace in Stillness - June 16th, 2017

The woods are so still
Just like the now abandoned mill
In the air there's a certain chill
The papers rustle, the now long overdue bill

Back and forth the rope sways
No one ever understood his strange ways
Or how he spent his days
Now his spirit never stays

It took a lot for him to bend
But his wounds would not mend
And so to hell he will send
He made his own end

Escaping Darkness - August 23rd, 2017

He took my soul and hid it away
Locked it up tight, held it at bay
Blurred our lines, made us gray
Took my heart and made it fray

I became him and he became me
I was binded with him
That made it hard to see
At the moment it seemed so grim
He took away all my glee
He grew so close he was like a new limb
He would not set me free my chances of getting away seemed slim

But my light in the darkness finally shown through

She saved me and that's when I knew
I was safe from his torment
I was no longer discontent

My Inner Reflections - May 12th, 2018

You invade my mind on a constant basis
Your image churns in my thoughts like a play's epitasis
But the play you star in is a catastrophe
Your character will be the death of me

The memory of you is vague
Having seen your play so long ago
But still it takes over like a plague and I'm left out of the know

I don't understand why you're there in my head like an illness
You have me stuck in a snare
But it possesses a beautiful brilliance

So in the blur of obsession as my sanity I begin to question
I let it consume me
Until an end sets me free

It All Connects - May 22nd, 2018

Would

When the pain fades away and there is nothing left
I know I'll end it with a smile
So don't be alarmed by the lack of a heartbeat in my chest
I'll see you after a while

You

Who do you belong to now?
I lost my chance to get you
Who do you give your love to now?
Wish I could take down the line that I drew

Please

Fix my heart, I'm begging you at this point
Just say my name as sweetly as you can manage
The pain is in every muscle, every joint
So please, just this once, give me the advantage

Leave?

I don't even know you at all
Why can't you leave my mind?
Your voice is a siren's call
If I follow it what will I find?
