

A Day in the Time

#1 Mazes

Bright lights in Seattle formed me
And I saw
heaven manifest
I am still on my way back constructing the rain and encryption

#2 Regal

I struggle alongside confiding in beauty
to see her again
wanting a friend
My job is the same
making a fame
A frame in the sky
of new aeronautics
seeming shy
As time ticks
I see her
with no closure
a beautiful structure and I miss her

#3 Soak

I am through these anthems
of digital footprint
rain patterning
seeing your starlight in Seattle
soaking bashfully
by the rain
of my math staring at you
my next home

#4 Total

Vicariously coding persuading computers
until too much is reversed Travelling across the coast

A Day in the Time

But life designs
still liquid and fast
seeing shooting stars, soaring somewhere
salting subjects
with what we need never negating humans

#5 Fate

I accept that life is alien everything is special Futures made from bricks are everywhere
and my essence behaves from its heavy scholastic haven
Fated metric tons
