-welcome (you 're hired) we 're very happy to have you
-(maybe) you too /so polite

in a sea of faces

makin'(/taking) stills that they may never see again

(of) splendor triumph they need to make up for what they missed or was stolen .. or a different future)

well

this moment passed and we didn' t know that we were stars now

..now show

..show everything you know/own hope that you 'll get out your soul whole but for her no .. that might be no it s the only world she 'd known she won 't ever want to go it's part of her part of her show..soul can 't you hear the bugles?

I surrender to the view pawns in a serade they re not aware Dance into the masquerade
Lost in a city where vampires are holding the keys

Entrance to Metropolis

place : entrance to city (where the emperor is a beautiful woman)

In this metropolis I pray..
..for its dying day
An illusion painful to stir-up

Palace light lums in vain might the pieces fall in place Spirits fall through visions..

that light sent takes me
--ashes of hills i used to run
..they re all but fallen kingdoms
..fell..lie beneath me

--visions go through me
..but where does it lead?
..the illusions of tomorrow

the master of all! (meaning the one that it burdens) (I m) at the edge of the world!
(where) another purposeless hand (put) in the throne holds the chalice aspid.. no where you do lead (i just want out) the chalice of blood slips her/the hand ..(of the) bloodthirsty paintress(empress) of blood 2times in purpose to tone

..

i m the same but inside
there s an endless chasm

i m the same but inside
there s a different men/person

once again we 've nothing Destroyed (by) a myth so far its our "world"..but.. at least we breathe "
