

A Sad Old Man with A Sad Old Plan

You Have A Small Window Where You Can Leave Your Mark That Will Live On
For Generations

Instead You Squander It On People That Forget Your Name As Soon As You Leave The Room

In The Future You Will Want To Spend Time With Them When You are Old, Frail and Lonely...And They Will Say No Dad, I want to Spend Time with My Kids..
Take Them To Their Games, Play Basketball With Them, Take Them To The Movies

The Irony Is That They Will Become Great Fathers, Pouring All The Love And Time To Their Children That They Wished You Would Have Given Them...

And Again You Will Be Forgotten When You Leave The Room, A Sad Old Man With A Sad Old Plan
