

NUMB
REFLECTION OF ME

Look at me
Look at me hard
Look at me long

Gaze deep, but do not get weak
I am everywhere, but some seem not to see me
Others hide me out of fear

I have no specific face
Nor gender
Nor race

I am powerful
I am fearful
I am forceful and often take you by surprise

You might say you leave me
Ha Ha Ha Ha Ha
Try it if you can
If you dare

You are weak
I am strong
I work overtime to control your world

I am the secret to many pains and isolations
I give you no mercy
I give you no peace
I would take your life in a heartbeat

Girl please!
You have stress me out
You have made me weak
You almost drained life out of me

But hear me now, as I stand out!
I have owned my steps
I am claiming my success
I have built an extra skin
I have built an extra skin to be numb
Numb so that I won't feel
Feel for what already happened

For what is near by Numb so that I can re-vive in me the person that once died

I am not your violence
You are not my pain
I removed the fear
I have dried the tears
And
You, ha ha ha
You have nothing on me
Nothing on me
Nothing on me

I am not your victim
I am a survivor world wide
You are not my keeper
You cannot take my life
You cannot take my life

BLOOMING HEART

Blooming heart
New illusions in my life

Pain after pain
It looks like the rain is ceasing away
And the sun is brightening its ray of light

Oh! rays of light touching me so deeply inside
Inside of this body
Inside of this soul in distress

Shine sun shine
Shine in my heart
Shine to make it bloom like deserted roses of June

I LOVE YOU

I love you now
I love you still
I love you forever and I always will

I love you for all those things that words cannot express and when I try words are still not enough

I love you within my spirit
I love you within my soul

I love you with my body and all its components

I thank my eyes for being able to look at you
I thank my fingers for being able to touch you

I thank my heart for loving you
I thank God for knowing you

I love you now
I love you still
I love you in life
Beyond death
Forever I will

I DON'T WANT SEX

I don't want sex
I want romance

Undress me
Caress me
Kiss me from head to toes

Don't deem the lights
Turn them off

Please!

Light on the candle lights

I don't want sex
I want romance

Between nibbles and massages make my body tingle, while my hormones create a storm
Let make music without words
Deep breath
Oohs!
Aahs!
The background sounds as you kiss my back
Make me beg at the end when my body is swimming in sweat

I don't want sex
I want romance

My body is the instrument and you are the master player
An orgasm without penetration
A scream in the middle of the night

Baby, baby

I don't want sex
I want romance

NAKED

I'm walking naked
I thought I knew

You took me young
I thought I knew

I was a woman at just 15
I thought that I knew

You directed and redirected me
I thought I knew

I tried to escape
I thought I knew
I gave you some things
Others you took
You forced in
You gave much pain
You stared at me
Firmed
Convinced
With no remorse
A sweet tone in your voice
A man with pride
You took the cherry of pie

I was in love
I thought I knew

You left me naked
I thought I knew

Now that I know
I think of you
A man of two faces
A man that drains life

I'm walking naked
I thought I know
