

Life Is...

Life Is What It is

Life is what it is however...

If it is a dream, let me embrace it & scream.

If it is real, then let it be surreal.

If it is divine, let me intertwine & make it hers & mine.

If it is an absolution, let me find resolution..

If it is a high, let me fly fly fly & touch the sky.

If it is love, let me soar like a dove.

If it is air, then fly me there.

If it is despair, let me find air.

If air is not there...let her be my inhale & I be her exhale.

If it is water, let me swim until...I spot her.

If it is fire, then feed my desire & let me burn higher & higher inside her.

If it is a presence, let her & I together share an evanescence.

If it is passion, let her see my compassion.

If it is a mystery, let her make my history.

If it is a dance, give her a chance to enhance me at first glance, & together we can prance to a beat of our own phenomenal romance.

If it is a song, her heartbeat is a sound only, I belong.

If life does not receive me, let her perceive me, conceive me, & believe in me.

If life is a fight, fill me with insight, & wipe away all hatred with might.

If life is a choice, I DARE fate to hear my voice!

If life is a lesson, capture my oppression with aggression session by session.

If life is a gift, let me sail adrift, & within myself spiritually uplift.

If life is short, let me one day leave earth, & to Heaven- transport.

If life is hopeless, help me find focus.

If life is gloomy, let happiness, love, & passion glue me.

If life is a joke, help wisdom to provoke me so only God can invoke me.

If life is tough, feed me some right stuff so when I digest it, it will not be so rough.

If life is beauty show her to me, be true to me, &

If it is laughter, let me live with her...happily ever after.

Life is what it is

Life's Chapters

It is in living that we die, &

It is in dying that we live.

It is in forgetting that we remember, &

It is in remembering that we forget.

It is in trying to get up that we fall, &

It is in falling that we get up.

It is in giving up where we find a fight, &

It is in fighting where we never give up.

It is in hunger where we eat, &

It is in eating where we realize others are hungry.

It is in laughter that we live, &

It is in living that we love to laugh.

It is in loving that we give, &

It is in giving that we show love.

It is in hatred where we lose ourselves, &

It is getting lost in life that we hate.

It is in consciousness that we hope & dream, &

It is in subconsciousness that we dream & find hopes & dreams.

It is in peace where war finds us, &

It is in war where we supposedly are to find peace.

It is in anger where we are calmed, &

It is known as a calm before the storm.

It is in sadness that we are drowned, &

It is in drowning that is sad.

It is in being glad that we are thankful, &

It is in thanks that others are glad.

It is in fear where darkness haunts you, &

It is in darkness where you can choose to haunt fear.

It is in light where our paths are shown, &

It is in showing others our gifts where they see light.

It is in shame that guilt controls you, &

It is in controlling guilt & shame that shows shame to shame itself.

It is in pride where we are confident & never weak, &

It is in overconfidence that weakness & pride are destroyed.

It is in stubbornness that we think we know what we are doing, &

It is in knowing what we are doing that stubbornness is lost &

We tend to listen.

It is in listening where we learn, &

It is in learning to listen where we learn. &

It is in a beginning that leads to an end & It is in an end where we find a beginning.

For life has many chapters, & there is always a new beginning in life.

The One Who Whispers I Am There

Sitting under a streetlight...I am swooned.

My emotions, cleverness, & bewilderment are mistaken for a moon.

Gazing up at thousands of stars, I know you are not afar.

Time seems to pass like sand that drops from an hourglass,

How long has it been since I was in a high school class?

Thinking of times how things have come to pass...

Trains pass, cars drive by so fast, & timeless times fly by so often as well.

Time is timeless, funny... so is a laugh.

Sitting on a beach, waves rush in & out.

Emotions are rushed in & out like a waterspout.

A beach is a Sanctuary, a place to wish things away.

Tomorrow is a brand-new day, what will we say?

Happiness, anger, sorrow, will there maybe be a better tomorrow?

Fears, tears, & cheers to all our years, I love you my dear.

I look up & see birds fly. Crisp warm air never dies.

Funny how your smile never tires & thinking of you leaves me with deep sighs.

Sitting in a forest of mountains watching a rushing waterfall,

Are we not happily ever after all?

Deer run, fish swim, badgers build, & swans swim gracefully.

In a forest energy is calm, serene, & you make feel me so peacefully.

In all these places I go... I still see you wherever I go.

It is you I always know, your face, I see... I never forget you always, & within me, you glow.

In snow, sun, wind, rain, & in my pain,

Wherever I go... no matter how much I know

It seems wherever I go, there is something, somewhere

No matter how much of you I do not know... something of you

Wants to grasp me, tell me, breathe into me, &

Tell me something, of you... to show.

It may be words; it may be conversation; it may be appreciation...

It may be music... it may be something someone said who leaves me standing dead in my tracks smiling happily without deviation...

It may be a dream...because I know we make a great team.

Dreaming of you never gets old.

It may even be a tear or just a day where nothing is even happening.

Then, suddenly... something happens to where I think of you & I just burst out laughing,

& it may be a song or a movie & one day it may even be just a random memory.

You have been in my life a whole entirety of time.

Under our moon... you have made me swoon.

Under our stars...you have not been afar.

At a beach, you have come to me & preached.

In a forest within mountains... you have sung to me through a waterfall, & for you I had to fall.

In snow, rain, & even in my pain, it was you I had to gain.

It always has been you... the one who whispers in my ear, "I am always here."

It always has been you...the one who whispers in my heart, "I will never part."

In my heart, you are the one who always whispers to me, with serene air... "I am there."

& I thank you...the one who whispers in my heart...for you are always in my heart to care.

I Am Your Friend

When a young child is crying, will you be around?

When an old man dies of 105, will you be around?

When there is a fire downtown in the poorest house, will a neighborhood still be around?

When an earthquake shakes the earth of a baby cradle with such a detrimental sound... will that city still be around?

When a star burns a sky of blood, will the Earth still be around?

When wind whispers in your ear, will you listen?

When a star shoots across a night sky, will your heart glisten?

When your parents try to give you advice, will you listen?

When you die, is it your family & friends you will be missing?

When a crowd dances, will a sideline audience care?

When music shakes a house of Jehovah, will a congregation bear?

When a Muslim eats a lamb, will his family still be there?

When a Buddhist monk shows Tai Chi his own method, will energy be of truth or dare?

If your best friend were to tell you a secret, would you have ability or will in your heart to keep it?

If you realized the world is more than a secret & you found out there is more to life than your own tiny little neighborhood, would you peep it?

If you were running down a mountain, would you have audacity to leap it?

If you were treading waters & you started drowning, & you saw your life flash before you, would you keep it?

When a puppy dies, will you bury it with dignity?

So, you know one day you will join it in infinity.

My waters run deep; it is time for iniquity.

Feel my river & sail with tranquility.

Are you a first-born son?

Has your life just begun?

Are you just one friend to all of humanity under the sun?

Do you walk your path knowing you will never have to run?

Walk to the summit of a mountain very slowly.

Did God light my way- a new path to show me?

Say, "Did He make you your baseball & to a safe glove throw me?"

Say, "Feel my breath of crisp air & blow me."

Into the wisp of clouds in the sky...
Higher & higher will you fly.
You will not sigh, cry, or worry because you say,
"My outlook is strong as stone & crude water will just pass me by."

So here you go to say so true,
"Let absolute truth show my soul what to do."
You know what you were born to do...
Dance your heart out & engulf love so true!

A heart is a vast ocean...
Once selfish now moving in keener slow motion.
Your will is of honored devotion,
To show humankind your acts can be of pure joy of emotion.

You cannot hurt anyone; you want the best for anyone.
Because your love for life is enabled for everyone.
There is only one race...
& that is the human race!
Sit at a table of your own heart, & taste.
Find the glue of life, & paste.
Then bake your best meal & baste.
Then realize...you do not need makeup on your face.

You do not have to dress to impress.
Be yourself & show everyone you can be the best book on a shelf!
Put yourself to the test to show yourself you can have much patience.
Dance or sing to a drum of you heart with absolute cadence!

Open your ears & your heart & give it all up...
To the Lord & let Him overfill you cup.
Now it is time to set your alarm & wake-up!
Because tomorrow may never come again, & your life today could be His to take up.

You are a friend
Until the very end.
Listen...because you cannot say enough.
You love life & everyone in it.
True love is your own unique kind of stuff.

Here is why there is true love.

Because you fly so high like an ultimate dove!

You could always look high above.

Because you are not selfish at all...you just want to give yourself a hug.

So just remember...to think about who will be there in the end.

Will your heart be so torn It cannot mend?

I AM your own friend until an end!

But do not worry...I will see you in Heaven, & together we can make our own new trend.

A Heart of a Champion

Crisp clear water.

A warm serene ocean.

A sounding of tranquil water & waves soothing a shore.

A cracking of a whip in your mind.

A beating of your heart.

A sounding of cool air brushing you by.

You hear sounding of thunder in a distance.

& lightning in shadows ahead.

You take a step.

A stride. A leap of faith.

You take off running.

Not knowing where you are going,

Yet you know what you were Born to do.

Air in your lungs.

Strong blood in your veins & heart.

Keen eyesight of an eagle.

Heart of a lion.

Spirit of a fire-breathing dragon.

Strength & will of a knight's sword.

Courage of a determined warrior.

Ahead of you, you know not yet what lies, but you are fearless.

You come across quicksand.

You sink.

You focus & relax.

With concentration you rise with strength & escape.
Next vines try to strangle you.
You burn them with fire.
You are better than fire though.
Your spirit is an internal & external potent energy which Bursts outwardly.
Nothing can touch you.
Nothing ever will.
Next you see titans.
Tall & gargantuan they are.
You defeat them with your wit.
Your might & will are amazing!
Unbelievable. Unimaginable. Incomparable.
Finally, you take flight.
You soar to a mountain top.
You reach a pinnacle of a summit.
You gaze down upon below you.
You realize how valiant you are.
You know you are strong & mighty.
You know exactly who you are.
You are not a baby...
For, you did not cry.
You are not a child...
For, you never did crawl.
You are not weak...
For, you never did look back.
YOU...are a legendary champion, & NO ONE can take
That away from you...NO ONE!!! & I mean...No...one.
