

I never took a step just to step in line.
If I ever took a left it was never right..or on time Never been impressed just to simply get inside
Invest in the road less tested
Crawl on my belly thru enemy trenches
I found a second entrance entrance as they told me step aside
I Slide thru wire fences
This is the event essence of whatevers left of pride

In counterfeit convalescence
Lesson learned after the lessers die
Hands fall before the questions rise
Let's see Which testaments withstand the test of time

In a pit of snakes w mostly snakes inside
When pushed inside
most the snakes survive
And Men?
supposed to hide. Take a bow. Or take a dive.
I'm like ya right
As the serpent sheds its skin
I Sever ties with severed heads
The 7 deadly sins begin in the reptilian brain shrunken mind

Whether Fight or flight I promise it's on site

Sail the seven seas you scamp scallywags
Play make believe that dead men never lie
Tellin ghost stories while the sun shines hella bright

Lord as my judge court of law can I get a witness to testify
While so called peers can only hear each others whispers
Talking to myself saying " never mind"

Looks can be deceiving
Especially when everything's decieving
And everybody thinks he's a genius
People prefer darkness over light
When evil deeds seem easier

Just a Sign of the end times
Time and time again time just seems to fly
Or pass by
