Unstoppable

Take my ideas,

My work for your gain.

I have more to give.

Corral, demean me.

I am more than that in life.

I will prove it.

Deep Cut

Slammed door on my path.

Cause: stress. No apology.

I can't forget this.

Built up jealousy,

Uncontrolled, colors kinship.

You are not my sis.

Evolution and Awakening

Drank the elixir.

Repelled your wrath, your control.

My life has improved.

I am aware now.

The vortex can't suck me in.

I can have new terms.

What I See

Here is what I see:

Stuck, angry, disappointed.

How can I help you?

Here is what I see:

Elan, confidence, kin bond.

Use these to improve.

Beloved of the Flower King

I want to be the beloved of the flower king.

I want you to be the flower king.

I want our serendipitous meeting to fully bloom into something more than it did,

Like the flower king and his beloved.

Against all odds,

Across two worlds,

Stay together and run a business

And be featured in an article about how flowers heal.
