

Kayla

make an incision exposing
red and green wires
wrap one up
around your fingers
I cried when she left

Jess

do you remember when I moved in to that crooked house
in Fountain Square
that isn't there
anymore

Liz

Nashville
and New Orleans
may share
the same night sky
but she still
owes you
nothing

Hannah

rain
on a coffee
shop window
walking boots
she got for christmas
you're only in love
with ideas

Melissa

and she never went to bed
without brushing her teeth
he said
what a strange thing
to miss
