BURN

burn through my veins,
set my lungs on fire.
dragging my nose up your throat,
it's like i can't breathe.
but all there is,
is air -
full
-of the smell of you.
choking me,
filling me up,
releasing all my tension,
gripping my soul,
melting my flesh,
and keeping my body whole.
