

My Platitude Problem

Forgiveness, you don't owe me
Sympathy doesn't know me
You tell but can't show me
Why does it matter?

The benefit of the doubt
I can live without
What is this about?
Why does it matter?

Mercy is what you seek
Turn the other cheek
But that sauce is weak
Why does it matter?

We ASSume and curse
But that's not the worst
Refer to the last verse
Why does it matter?

Patience is a virtue
Well I'm waiting for you
To show me, to prove
Why does it matter?

Not after every rain is shining
A rainbow or silver lining
With every cloud, defining
Why does it matter?

Go along to get along
Singing that same old song,
That couldn't be more wrong
Why does it matter?

Time heals all wounds
Has no weight or ground
An argument without sound

Pretty words that sound right
Really just crude and trite
And worthless in hindsight

These sayings do not matter
Phrases from the Mad Hatter
Under inspection shatter
Nothing but empty chatter
