

America's Favorite Pastime

A nice spring day in a park I watch
Red Sox against Yankees play
The pitcher pitches the ball

Strike one, strike two, WACK!

Round to first, second, thir..
Oh no, he just got out!
Three outs, switch sides
Bottom of the ninth, just two runs behind

The batter approaches the plate
And he swings CRACK....
It's a home run! The crowd cheers
Someone starts the wave

Who will win? Who will it be?
It's a double play, two men are out
Two out, they need two runs to win
Can they do it, the crowd watches on edge

SMACK! He runs to first, second, third
What was...could it be, yes indeed
Another player comes in, the game is tied!
Another batter takes the plate

Strike one, strike two
The pitcher throws a curve ball
And the batter is....
OUT! The other teams wins.
