

Progression's Surrender: The Climb.

Dilution

You want less for more
They taught me how to keep score
The solution is our solution
Solvent hid among solute
I can never bear to watch you dilute
Less for more is like lead for Gold
The philosopher is found in the concentrate Ruby stone yours for your knowing

Red Rosy World Ringing Round While You're Going.

Surrender

Surrender Surrender
You'll never be better
Do you the title I hold?
I am the ender among enders

Oh sweet child cling tight to your treasures
You step like mammoths yet are poultry to your feathers
Each will be plucked, still special as the last
Had despair not pulled at your hair?

Your feathers just might stroke our gentle air

Dirt's Dance

The dirt is ever dancing
Moves carried even by wind
Appearance obvious by black or white
O ever presence, praise be sweet ode's kiss to thou supple soil
Porous yay generous, nature remains rich by your constant web

The dirt is of one mind, many bodies, and infinite eyes
As fate's fire burns Earth's prepubescent surface
Dirt's network bands; flame to ash and ash like into thy plane.

Talisman

O Talisman of my eye
Great Shield Sky I'd take arms for your dawn and dusk
I watch your massive hulk night and day
I savor your coy dew's sacral musk

I carry you in my eyes O Sky
I plant these God Given feet on your Earth to lie
To walk to squat to turn your globe however about Talisman in mind, my landed soul is scholarly scout.

Penance

Pennant with arms of house of their father
Each rider eased steed to wet gullets with Spring's water
Water made to last, to freeze for when need be
To sizzle in circular spin since Tyrannosaurus
Cycle my cycle oh another's popped in Popped I've let in but my self is sealed
Who brings their sins to soak in cycle with mine?

Redemption claims the charitable, so for now I forgive, but what good is this penance if I would ever forget?
