After a brief moment
Of hunt
I found him
He had been in the house all along
I've sealed the door
For him not to go
Frightened behind the furniture
He stared

I placed traps around the house
With no attention
Hoping he would fall
For them
In them
Without affection

You kind of did
Getting your tail stuck on it

I'm just glad I didn't have to kill you
Setting you free was much more fun
Made me feel
Something
Like God

In the spaces in between
I might have felt you
Digging in my heart
With long cloys
And thin clue
Of what you're trying
To Find
In the Deep sleep
Of my desire

3.

I count
Hours
days
years

I just can't get rid of
The time you gave me

A straitjacket

I'm the madman
That sees you in the dark

And with each eyelid
I create a new world
We discover together
Until I loose your hand
The grip falls weak
And my eyes starts seeing
The reflection of my needs
Disappears

4.

At the end of the day
My word
Is empty
I try but it has
No meaning or image
To attach or stick
In the pot of thoughts
That's about to sink
No space or time
Just me myself and I
Memories and fantasy
Crash together in a wonderland of despair

Looking like myself
Has never been so difficult

5.

A labyrinth of possibilities
Strikes me down
In an ocean
Of YES,
Tho open doors
Shadow my path
To myself
And I feel
So
I feel...
Amazingly lost
