

Self-love.

We the same
you and me
We have a chemistry
Physical touch, spending time
Laid back, you and me
A natural connection
Sensual affection
And I always want more
Attractive. Seductive
I understand you on a level
I haven't experienced before
Love comes with ease towards you
Healthy competing,
I'm my best with you around
I resist the urge
I feel to tie you down
But I want you all to myself

Educated Drunk

Forgive me,
I'm intoxicated,
Inebriated,
Can't help I'm faded,
Be conversating
About education
And I can't explain it
Since I was emancipated
I must anticipate
The elevation of my people and
My elaboration of where I came from
Who I am
And my affiliations
Do you mind if I smoke my medication
My mind connected to my liberation
Your misinterpretations
Are bleeding upon my administration
Who's in charge
You or me
In this confused nation
Looking forward to my reparations
You owe me and the next, next, next, generation
So pay up

Mother to Son

My number one advice
For your life
Is don't be a bitch
Or a snitch
Or nowhere in between
Say what you mean
Do what you want
Try not to flaunt
Your money around
We from the underground
Be real, stay true
To your number one, you
Say yes to life
And to your roots
Stay low key on the outside
And
Burning desire within
Love yourself
Love your friends
From conception to end

Black Joy

Through it all, we smile
And sing
And write
And eat
And be great
Through it all, we create
And live
And love
And comply
And wait
Through it all we cry
And ask why
Our brothers die
Why you lie
And deny
What's rightfully ours
Through it all,
We find Joy
Colored Black. Red. Green. Rainbow.
