

Disguise

Pretty little angel
Let me See your eyes
Plèase..
Stop using them as your disguise
To pain
Anger
Lust
Disgust
You deserve a life that you can trust
You do deserve a reason why..
..your heart doesn't jump when taken by surprise
Don't you see the fire gleaming in your eyes
I want to play in it!
It's so wild
Your dreams are as hungry as your demons
Listen to your heart, it's spoken reason
Stop sweetening the truth
Stop telling lies
I know your not ok
I can see it in your smile
Don't strive for perfection.
It is biocide, that needs disinfectant
Your only human
You make mistakes
Don't beat yourself up
Put your foot on the brakes.
Happiness is forsaken
Forgiveness and kindness mistaken
For weakness
Yet The most toughest heart
Can disintegrate
The most busiest mind
Can architect concentrate
That conflict you feel
Between the heart and the mind
Do not let it it enslave you
Please just fly
Fly away pretty little angel
I see the gleam in your eyes
I see the hope
I feel the fear

& I know why you disguise.

Unwind..

There is no room for my sentimental ideals..
No entrance for the sunlight that beams after the storm
Obsessed with stimulating my mental form
I'm nervous right now and I don't know why..
A sweet odyssey
Typical Gemini
With thoughts that race a hundred miles
And eyes that pierce a soul inside
There is no room for mind and spirit
The firmament of our faculties.
Expunge my thoughts,
So that I can see reality..
No more typicality..
Live with those from whom you can learn
Resonate a soul that burns
And sagacity will come to life..
Though it always comes with a little strife..
No pain no gain
Story of my pathetic life..
..like a river that flows without design.
Like water flowing without direction
I wreck havoc, upon perfection.
Insight is perspicacity
Love is individuality
There is no room for selfish mortalities
The problem is,
We think we have time
Sit back..let me help you unwind.

Lies 'n love

I would never understand
Why people lie
Why they lie
Only to make you cry
Why they impose on you

To feed off of your energy
Only to suffocate it
With their debilitating enemies

You believe their lies
And then they pry
And then they hunt you
Like a prey at night
And behind your back
They cause a cataclysm
Using euphemism
To suck on your realism

It Sucks you dry
Extremely dry..

To really believe that you' believed their lie
You believed their smile
You believed their eyes
And you believed they were you're reason why
I would never understand that continuous yearn
To cover up what can make a person mourn
That little white lie
Didn't protect my heart
Instead all it did, was tear me apart

You used me as your scapegoat
You used me for your pride
Your foolish pride brought me fear inside
Tears on my cheek
& Aches in my heart
And Thus my biggest sin
...to never fall in love again.

How can you love

Blisters on my back
Shackles on my feet
Why is this world so cold
Am I beneath?

Ten women in one
Yet my world has just begun

And it just so happen
That I ultimately fear love

Because how can you love
In a world so cold
Where they budget cut our schools, suffocating us in pools
They make you cry a river
As you're children are getting bigger
They focus more on wars
Than peace within itself
No equanimity
But I need longevity.
Because how can you love
In a world so cold
Call me bold
But I feel old
I can't be from this generation,
My heart desires, my only representation
Because how can you love
in a world so cold
With a soul that folds
And a heart that molds
Am I a misrepresentation, of my current association
A discernible energy
To pursue my own enemy
With blood in my eyes
And tears put aside
The blisters on my back..
Makes me realize
Break the shackles off my feet
For it does not make me beneath & that fold in my soul
Now cherish my heart that molds..

Because that's how you love
In a world so cold.

..Beneath my wings..

Please to meet you

..you don't know my name?
...then you don't know how delicate of a woman I've become.
Attractive but treacherous Vulnerable yet strong please do not digress..
...I think my knowledge is long.
...But I know my life is short..
So let me begin to tell you how you are my Mozart.
...so gregarious & so proud... this passion I feel...
...can't be explained out loud.
I possess this estranged desire ..
....to remind you of who I am,
..beneath my wings...
I' am up for grabs...
...but right underneath these pretty wings of love..
Is not the most mellow, but stunning white dove
I feel more like a cockroach surviving a nuclear bomb..
Or maybe like the joy from a newborn fitting in my palm
...But I'm confused, I'm still..
...Battered & bruised!
..from being stepped on.... by everyone's shoes.
.. from constantly being told that I had to let you go, but for knowing all along you were my seed to grow..
So instead of picking you... as my own little flower
I water you every day like a garden under a bower
And I know you have not a clue..
...How in my mind..
I hunt you!
Yes, I said it!
Like a prey at night..
Like a eagle soaring a summer bay
..In bare moonlight.
...I can hear your moans against the powerful winds..
....I feel your comfort
..beneath my wings..

& Every night...when my mind wanders
Is the very moment that my heart ponders
...to become your mind's pendulum..
...Your hearts beating drums..
...Your very own weakness...

...your souls key interest..
I guess you didn't know..that ...The hint of coconut on your skin
..gets me aroused, on such instant whim...
..& the smell of almonds as I lay on your chest..
..Ignites a passion in me that keeps me abreast..
...it keeps me afloat
Surely makes me gloat..
...Its a love for you like no other..
..beneath my wings..
....I see no other..
...all I can see, is a strange mental defect
One In which, only you can infect Because
..beneath my wings..
Is just a mere thought.
...Of you my sweet darling..
Who will never hear me calling..
Or never know my name
Or just how much of a woman I' have became.
..you'll never know my smile
Or just how much
....it takes a while
To escape you from my system
..when you're my hearts only intention.
...so beneath my wings...
Is where you'll forever reside

...beneath my wings....
...Is the only place you' lie..
