

A Change is going to come. Paint the Bigger Picture....

PUNKY MOMS MIXTAPES

A Change
Is Gonna Come

In 1865 Juneteenth came alive. In 1883 Francis Galton Jubilee, started Eugenics, trying to play God. Who was he to distinguish the chosen to be fruitful & multiply? Our Black Women suffered long from 1933-1973. Wonder which president was killed, never made subconsciously. Our Women sterilized, poisoned and told lies. Our Brothers separated, a culture uncultivated, the ghetto in starvation, A Willy Lynch Nation. Now, it is time to Rise again 2020 has seen enough sorrows. Black, White, Asian, Spanish, Indian, this time we on borrowed. Make waves for the new generation. My Queens come together light, fair, to heavenly Melanated.

Uplift give knowledge. You're not broken or tainted. Love one another, because love is unpainted, not scripted or abused. But free like a muse. "Paint the Bigger Picture" starting with myself & you. Be who I choose. Stand up for your freedom, kill with kindness. No more oppression, no more ignorance or blindness. Blind to our differences, misconduct or submissiveness.

Pride, Strength, Worthy, Loyal is our acronyms. Don't shy away from Keke & Rahiem. To try to conform and fit in with Mary and Jim. Names are meaningful. My name is MEGAN, it means capable one. Let your emotions flow, I'm bred to help carry that burden. You dealt with trauma, put it on my shoulders and the hurt can be undone. Give to the father and pray to the Son. Life's a movie & it changes with everyday that comes. See I'm a mother, generational curse cover. I broke that cycle, you can start today. Leave the past behind and let loose. Let loose your inner power my Brothers and Sista's. Write the people in prisons. They too need a few answered wishes.

The Prison Industrial Complex has 1&3 Black Men, that's 2.2 million a year, that's your Uncle, Father, Brother or Friend. A foe even, But a catastrophic trend. Created for the Destruction of the Melanated male Homosapien. You can win, if you break free of your chains, bound mentally and constrained. No more injustice. No more Division, if you see the vision. Make conscious wise decisions. Stop with the antics, put your brain on retrograde semantics.

I know it hurts to finally be awakened, No native tongue, no dancing of the nation. That was and still can be our language. Hear the true astonishments we play in history. Diabolical acts tried to hide and shun these. I will shed some light on true Black miracles & mysteries.

Benjamin Banneke- Almanac, Patricia Beth-Laser Surgical Device, Charles Drew-Blood Bank. Hmmm, Histories finest, made ya think. So, we as people have come a long way. Of course, there's more to go. Please hold the hand of your fellow, whether they be Black, White, or Yellow. Just let them be understanding, kind and gentle, yet Brave, determined with a sound mental. To get the job done. Because we are one for all & all for one.

We all we got. Bigger picture. You know Better, You'll do Better!!!
