

“My Ghosts are Hungry, Not Holy”

Hymns are for the hungry,

Faith is for the fool.

Any being that is a god

Knows little of benevolence

Still, the spirituals curl,

Smoke from the altar through the gaps of your ribcage

Wisps faint as hope and fervent as prayer

Spilling from your open mouth.