

Pt 1

Its funny

So much of who i am comes from you

Who's not in my life anymore

My favorite artist

My humor

My habits

My friends

Thank you.

You had to let me go

You needed to leave

You forced me on my own

But i love who i am now

Pt 2

Everything I am is because of you

But i did it myself

I want to show you

I think you'd be proud

To see me so strong

Even though i still have demons

Im fighting them

On my own

I wish i could show you

I wish i could thank you
