

FINISH LINE

When you get to the finish line
Making you feel like a star
Feeling like you want to shout out loud
Scream with joy
Treat life as a game
Don't think of all the sad things life can bring
Think of the joy
You can conquer it all
Leave all the negatives in the dust
The happiness you feel is great
When you get to the finish line
You're a star
Listen to yourself
You can really do it all
Put your mind to it and achieve it all
Stay on the path and get to the finish line
You're a star at the finish line

FLOWER BUD POEM

I was a flower bud when I was a child

I was a little baby

I was a premature baby tiny little thing

I grew up small

So small I could fit in someone's hand

I was like a flower bud

I grew and grew

Now I am big

I love flowers

They grow and get big like I did

Get strong as the flower buds

I get bigger

As you get bigger and bigger you sprout up

Sprout and bud just like a flower

The bigger I get I feel like a flower

It makes no difference now

I'm healthy like a flower

My smile is like the sun

I enjoy life and that's who I am

I don't let anything get in my way

Sprout up like a flower bud

GOD IS CHAMPION

God is the champion because

He helps me win the race

God is the warrior

Because he helps you fight the test

When I get sick he helps me find the power

Power to walk again

God is your life jacket

God is champion and warrior

He is my champion

Light onto my Feet

God is the light onto my feet

I can walk if I try

God you are the lamb onto my flight

I'm at peace knowing you are by my side

The light guides me as I walk onto my feet

The light becoming brighter and brighter

I become stronger with every fighting power

I trust in my faith with you God

God helping me win the battle in the end

With light onto my feet I know it is possible

A light within that will never die out

Never going into darkness I see the light

A bright light onto the valley

Sparking bright into the darkness

I skip and jump with praise

God you are the lamb onto my flight

God opens the locked doors unto my path

With God it is all possible

God is the light onto my feet

MY HERO

You're my best friend

Someone I can always count on

My hero to the rescue in times of need

When I need something I always turned to you

You embraced me with your love and encouragement

Always making me feel warm with your smile

Always behind me guiding me in the right direction

A true friend

You were always the definition of a friend

I miss you dearly

My best friend in heaven looking down on me

You always brightened my black days and made me smile

Always warming my heart

I know you are my guardian angel

My sparkling star in the sky

You were always my security blanket

Someone I could always turn to for support

I miss you more than anything

I miss your smile

You are my hero and I love you
