

Real Love

Like a mirror on the wall
My love for you is on display
I never have a doubt
My only fear is losing you
Always to the point
I know you won't make me cry
If it's really love
I know it won't hurt me
You have to believe in truth
You have to know your worth
The day I met you
You told me I was worth it
We became best friends
Through the ups and downs
I believe you
I can trust you
I can love you
I have one question,
Can we make every moment worth it?

Fighting Chance

Another minute wasted with you by my side
I feel like we are both growing in our separate ways
I know I miss you darling because
Heaven is all in our business now
I know eventually we all find something we are in need of
I don't want it to be like this trust me
How can we get along when we can't even look into each other's eyes
It seems that all of our morals are on display
Still we find absolutely nothing to say
It seems only to be a difference of opinion
I think that is what scares me most
Security should be a blanket every person can afford
It's what kills me the most
All of this to say nothing, and if everything had a meaning i am pretty sure i would not be here
But I am, and I make it matter
Because I care
All that I ask of you is that you try to care
In the end it is worth it
Everything is always better after you had to fight hard for it

Forever

There is a hole in my heart,
That seems to be filled every time you are around me,
When you are gone my soul has a longing in it,
My emotions come rushing in and I just want to run to you,
I want to tell you forever how I feel for you,
It is that longing that keeps me coming back to you,
I don't ever want to lie to you,
I don't want to treat you wrong,
Just want to do right by you,
Every second of every moment,
Every time we are together,
You fill me up with your love,
I don't want to eat,
I don't want to sleep,
I don't want to play games,
When I am lying inside of your arms,
I just want to inspire multitudes of fires,
While staring at the stars as they are burning above,
Just want to grow and learn everyday
Trusting your love,
Returning everyday to one another's side,
If you're coming with me for eternity, forever,
Then let's go and hold on for the ride

Mirrors

Screaming at me
Looking at me naughty
Making a silly face
Staring with a blank face
What good are these things for anyway?
Well putting on makeup
Checking our appearance
Checking in with ourselves
Making sure that we are still alright
It is not a right to own a mirror
It should be used with care
Taking responsibility for every action and step you take in between each you meet
In all reality it is a sheet of metal covered in a sheet of glass
It's not hard to see
But sometimes it is hard to grasp
The spirit that comes out of it
And all of the love you can receive from the other side
You can look at it like you look at the ground
Each rain drop that has fallen to the ground
Is staring back at us into our face
Reflecting each one of our actions
Our emotions always showing
Our thoughts on display for ourselves to see
We can take a look at ourselves and fix ourselves right up
Keep walking
Keep helping each other
Standing for one another
And when the tensions build
Releasing one another's emotions
Pouring them onto each other
Putting our trust in each other
It doesn't have to be easy
We just have to keep trying
If you try and try you will eventually get where you want to be
And If you be who you want to be you will eventually be where you want to be
Be what you want to be

Loving With You

All of my love in the world
You could have it
That's just how I feel for you
I don't want to know what it's like to live without you,
I don't want to live without it,
I can't live without it, love,
Making love all day,
Making our house a home,
Making everything alright,
I need you by my side,
Making memories,
Making good memories, love,
No dangers in loving,
Caring for each other,
No matter the situation,
But you have me putting my hands up,
All I can do is surrender to your love,
Feeling vulnerable,
But I am more than able,
Not nervous,
Almost ecstatic, very capable,
Loose minded but ready,
To go to war with you
