

Fun in My Ear

Fun in My Ear

I can't hear you; I have fun in my ear.
Try as you might to get my attention,
The fun will not leave, although you are near.

I will end up offending you, I fear.
Although annoyance is your invention,
I can't hear you; I have fun in my ear.

Your gaze has become a powerful leer.
This has left me feeling apprehension.
The fun will not leave, although you are near.

You have made my tone become cavalier.
Despite you being left in suspension,
I can't hear you; I have fun in my ear.

Your distractions are of the lowest tier.
Your frantic waving leaves no impression.
The fun will not leave, although you are near.

You should take a hint and go disappear.
Wherever you go, leave me no mention.
I can't hear you; I have fun in my ear.
The fun will not leave, although you are near.
