

Eccletic writings and poems 2019

#1

"Lagos Girl

Omoge Eko"

Olorun a bless Omo Obirin to je

Dark with a bit of miliki

You are endowed.

Highly blessed among women.

Omoge mi..

Eko lo dagba si...

Omo Eko.

Blessing to you!

Se Lagos ni?...Victoria Island?..

Marina...?

College Educated and Graduate of a University!

Keep learning and One day...

I will learn from you and you'll take that learning from me.

Peace my Queen.

Olorun a bless wa!

Naija Princess and soon to be Wifey!"

-Dr. Babatunde O. Adekson, Phd

4/7/2019

12:14pm

#2

"Bread and Sardines"

"From that bakery next door...buredi (bread)

Freshly baked.

And I can smell the baking as I rise early in the morning.

The smell of freshness and quality.

I'm sent to buy the bread.

The sardines are canned.

Preference for the ones soaked in oils.

Then bread and sardiness combo.

The fish and the bread.

Now that is a poor man's breakfast!

Fish and bread

Just like the ones that Jesus Broke and blessed.

On the shores to feed the 5,000

Hungry and tired.

The bread of life and the fish of life.

Bread and sardines."

-Dr. Babatunde O. Adekson, PhD

4/9/2019

5:24pm

#3

"Francophone beauty"

Comment cava? How are you doing?

Cava bien! Good!

Lovely francophone beauty...

From the land of wealth and speech and yes...

Love!

I hail from France..she says!

A dainty and lady with grace and beauty...

with golden hair flowing down her back!

I've come to pay homage and I bring good tidings of Joy and peace!

Yes...peace to this land of wealth and and good things!

Yes France! and I am paying homage to you my dear!

To pay that respect to you my dear!

I learned you and taught you in youth!

You did not listen...

I could have taught you the language of love and everything else!

To converse and come and visit my land and have that true fill of love!

And I've come and you will listen...

I've learned from you all of these years...the English of the Queen!

Now let me show you love and teach you the true language of true love!

Peace my love and my King!

Ce Bon!

-Dr. Babatunde O. Adekson, PhD

4/11/2019

12:27am

#4

"Greed, Corruption, and Apathy in the land of Kings and Prophets"

The bible says that the Love of Money is the root of all kinds of Evil.

This is true to many extents.

But the word also says that Money is a defense and Wisdom is a defense.

In this day and time....

Intelligence and knowledge creates opportunity to gain wealth!

Why oh land of Africa...Why?

Have your Kings committed fornication with the land and Wasted the reesources and wealth of the land.

Pillaged the land and devoured the Queens!

Why oh Africa?

Why on Earth have you corrupted and killed and pillaged the wealth of the land!

To gain and to gain and to Gain!

Your Sins have reached heaven and the most High will devour till Kingdom Come.

This is the word....there is no denying the revelation!

Because your sins have corrupted the daughters of the lands.

Your Pride and arrogance and your envy for your Brethren!

You wanted to be like the Most High!

But then Peace to the Land.

And to those who continue to strive despite the opposition and the barriers!

Peace to the green, the yellow and the reds of the land!

Amen!

-Dr. Babatunde O. Adekson, PhD

4/11/2019

10:16am

#5

"Young Lions Suffer and Hunger for meats"

The young lions roam the concrete jungles...

Sometimes in packs... and sometimes alone.

The motivation is meat.

They are lean...muscular to a certain extent.

These lions are carnivores...they eat, eat, and eat...

To the delight of their hearts and until they reach the full apex of satisfaction for the day.

Then right back to the fold.

To rest and hydrate for the night..

Then sleep.

Then repeat the cycle again the next day!

Young lions suffer and Hunger for meat!

-Dr. Babatunde O. Adekun, PhD

4/13/2019

10:49am