

The Price We Pay to Stay Alive

It is the price we pay to stay alive

Every day we must choose the cost

The end will always arrive

We must fight to keep from being lost

Every day we must choose the cost

What we are willing to pay

We must fight to keep from being lost

We have to choose which path to obey

What we are willing to pay

No price will change the choices we made

We have to choose which path to obey

The future will refuse to be delayed

No price will change the choices we made

The end will always arrive

The future will refuse to be delayed

It is the price we pay to stay alive.

Decisions

Our life is full of decisions made

The path we willingly follow

To where our own destruction is laid

The debt we know, will never be paid

The fight continues on, and so

Our life is full of decisions made

The knowledge we learn is relayed

From choice to choice we go

To where our own destruction is laid

Our feelings we wish we had obeyed

The things we could change, if we did know

Our life is full of decisions made

Nowhere else to go, we feel dismayed

We have to go, so quickly now

To where our own destruction is laid

The end we can no longer evade
All of our choices led us here, we know
Our life is full of decisions made
To where our own destruction is laid

Place

The sun beats down

Full in my face

Where I am going

Where is my place

The more we try to find

Our place in life

The more it seems

We meet trouble and strife

But we keep on fighting

Fight, fight, fight

To find the place that's

Where will it lead us

We do not know

But we never refuse

To go, go, go

We keep on going

We don't look back

We keep on trying

To stay on track

Finally

Only at the end

We figure out

We're right where we began

Seven Years

Seven years

We've been together

It's been so long

Seems like forever

You taught me love

Dedication

You showed me who I was

Realization

You're the one person

Who means the most to me

Your face in my dreams

Is all I see

I never knew

How much I could love

Then you took me

One step above

I am better now
Because of you
You helped show me
How much I can do

In the end
Is me and you
The only thing I need to say
Is that I love you

Troubles

Hard is the fight

Long is the wait

Show me the light

Tell me my fate

I keep trying harder

But no matter how hard I try

I become my own martyr

I keep asking myself why

The days are so long

The nights so troubled

Everything is wrong

My worries are doubled

The questions inside

I cannot answer

I keep trying to hide

But they grow like cancer

How much longer can I stand

With all my debating

It goes hand in hand

With all my berating

Eventually I will stop

All the questions will cease

I will soon adopt

An inner self peace
