

I think I know what love is...

*Pressing my hand
against your skin
when you feel unwell*

*Caressing your back
On the way home
Until you're safe in bed*

*Bringing you water
To provide at least
A moment of relief*

*Drawing the blinds
To keep the light
At bay while you rest*

*Talking gently
By your side
Until you drift to sleep*

*Checking on you
Every minute or two
In case you are awake*

*Covering you softly
With a blanket
Every time you stir*

*Waiting patiently
For you to wake up
To give you a kiss*

*Love is my actions
Love is not one thing
Love is everything
You are my everything*
